A letter from Co-Director of UJCI

Dear Friends,

Thank you for taking time to read the UJCI second semester Course Guidelines for 2021 and we welcome you to register for our online Mandarin course offerings. We hope to see you in person and to offer Chinese cultural courses at our institute once the pandemic has subsided.

We would also like to take this opportunity to invite you to follow the UJCI social platforms to learn more about the institute and what we have to offer. You are also welcome to participate in any of our online activities and seminars.

We wish you all the best for the year 2021 and we are excited that you will be joining us.

Prof Peng Yi

ONLINE CREDITED COURSES

(ONLY FOR UJ STUDENTS)

In order to achieve the best teaching outcome, the minimum class size for each course is 5 (If we have less than 5 students, we will notify you about the cancelation of the course when the registration is closed) .

The UJCI is proud to announce that the Basic Mandarin and Intermediate Mandarin Courses are approved as credited courses offered at the University of Johannesburg for the second semester of 2021:

1. Basic Mandarin (Qualification Code: S7011Q):

This course is designed for students with little or no Chinese language background. It aims to introduce students to the fundamentals of Mandarin language.

2. Intermediate Mandarin (Qualification Code: S7012Q):

This course is designed for students who have completed Basic Mandarin or have some prior knowledge of Chinese language and culture. The aim of this course is to introduce students to further fundamentals of Mandarin by engaging in the following aspects of the language: grammar learning, exercises of Chinese characters, and oral discourse in daily life situations.

Notice: According to UJ regulations, UJCI will organize exams for credit courses. The final score will account for 10% of attendance, 20% of homework, 20% of mid-term exams, and 50% of final exams.
